MEMORANDUM FOR: DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

SUBJECT : Briefing by TSD of Air Force Rome Air Development Center Personnel

1. This memorandum is for information only, and no action is required. It describes a briefing which may come up when you next see Major General James H. Walsh.

2. Although TSD maintains a continuous running liaison with AF Rome Air Development Center (RADC), it nevertheless appears worthwhile periodically to get together for a formal across-the-board briefing. With this in mind, two weeks ago Col. E. B. Giller and three other members of TSD visited RADC and explored their activities which are related to our effort.

3. On 19 April a return visit to TSD was paid by the following AF personnel from RADC and some of their customers:

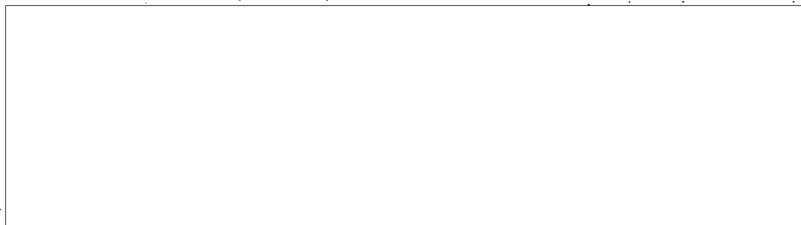

Lt. Col. Gilbert Peters, Head of Quick Reaction Capability (QRC)
David Barber, Chief of QRC, Intelligence Branch
Major Moore, Chief of QRC, Electronics Branch
Dr. Stynler, Chief of QRC, Chemical Section
Charles Strack, Chief, Aeronautics Section
Robert Byrne, Optics Section
Dr. McCloud, Chief, Human Engineering Development
Lt. Col. Fitz, R&D Co-ordinator of AF Office of Special Investigations in Washington
Capt. Warren Lilly, R&D Project Officer, AF Office of Special Investigations in Washington
Capt. Henry Schibi, AF Systems Command
Capt. A. F. Peerson, AF Systems Command
Capt. John F. Robinson, Electronic Systems Division

4. During the morning the group was broadly briefed on the scope of TSD activities. The discussions, however, were strictly limited to technical areas and did not include actual operations. In the afternoon the group broke up into a number of sub-groups which discussed specific technical areas such as

5. The general feeling on the part of both TSD and the visitors was that the time and effort devoted to the briefing were well spent and that mutual benefits will result.
